Official Application Address

Applications must be filed online at www.dvlottery.state.gov

Applicants are strongly encouraged not to wait until the last week to file. Heavy demand may result in website delays.

Things to Remember....

- * No fee is required to apply;
- * Only one application is allowed per person. More than one application will lead to automatic disqualification.
- * Each spouse can submit their own application.
- * You may submit it from within the United States.
- * The application may only be filed online.
- * Applicants must be a native of one of the eligible countries. Ineligible countries are listed below. Applicant's native country refers to the country where you were born. You may, however, claim the country of birth of your spouse or the country of birth of either parent if you were born in a country of which neither of your parents was a native or a resident at the time of your birth. A dependent child (under 21) may also claim the country of birth of either parent. Please call EIIC (718) 478-5502 or (718) 324-3039 if you have any further queries.
- * Applicants must have a minimum of a high school education or the equivalent or two years work experience within the past five years in a job requiring at least two years training to perform; The U.S. Department of Labor's O*Net Online database will be used to determine qualifying work experience.
- * Starting May 8, 2021, all applicants for the DV-2022 lottery must check the status of their entry online to verify if they have been selected using their confirmation number. Lottery winners will not be notified by mail or e-mail.

Persons born in the countries listed below are ineligible unless they can claim chargeability as a native of another qualifying country as described above: Bangladesh, Brazil, Canada, China (including Hong Kong SAR), Colombia, Dominican Republic, El Salvador, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras, India, Jamaica, Mexico, Nigeria, Pakistan, Philippines, South Korea, United Kingdom (except Northern Ireland) and its dependent territories, and Vietnam. Persons born in Macau SAR and Taiwan are eligible.

IF YOU HAVE OVERSTAYED YOUR VISA AND ARE OUT OF STATUS PLEASE READ THIS IMPORTANT NOTICE CONCERNING YOUR LOTTERY APPLICATION

Since October 1st, 2002, the US Department of Homeland Security has been collecting passenger information from airline carriers on all arriving and departing visitors. The airlines are scanning passports upon departure and sharing this information with the authorities.

Arrival and departure records are now being matched to identify individuals who have overstayed their visas. Individual overstay data will be available to immigration authorities at all U.S. ports-of-entry, USCIS offices and U.S. Consular posts.

Winners of any DV lottery who are undocumented may not be eligible to collect a green card. Those who have overstayed are generally not eligible to be interviewed in the U.S. and must be processed at an American Embassy in their native country. As these embassies will have access to overstay information, it is probable that you will be disqualified from the DV Lottery.

Additionally, anyone who departs the U.S. after overstaying by more than 6 months will face a 3 year bar to re-entry. Anyone who overstays by more than 1 year and leaves the U.S. will face a 10 year bar to re-entry.

If you have overstayed and you are called for the DV Lottery please consult us or an attorney before applying. For more information and assistance call the Emerald Isle Immigration Center at (718) 478-5502 or (718) 324-3039.

Every caller and visitor to our Centers will be treated with complete confidentiality.
